Governor

May 9, 2024

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Commonwealth, I commend the Better Business Bureau for recognizing May 9th as Scam Survivor Day. It is appropriate that a day should be set apart each year to recognize and support scam survivors.

For over a century, the Better Business Bureau has been serving communities throughout the United States and Canada. The stigma surrounding scam victimization often leads to underreporting, which in turn increases the risk for others. That's why it's critical to support and uplift scam survivors. To that end, the Better Business Bureau has developed a Scam Survival Toolkit using its unique approach to serving consumers affected by scams.

The First Lady and I encourage all citizens, agencies, and organizations interested in supporting and uplifting scam survivors to come together to raise awareness about the importance of reducing the stigma surrounding scam victimization.

Sincerely,
